

HELLO

I'M ADAM MCCOID

ABOUT ME

I'm a photographer and filmmaker that has a with a penchant for working within absurd, self-imposed limitations. I have developed a love for all types of climbing, I want to share this love with others and give kids the ability to release their "inner monkeys"

SCOUTING LIFE

I joined cub scouts when I was 7 years old, and I have been in the Scouting Program for 10 years, and now I am coming up on earning my Eagle.
